Sumter Cruisers Car Club met Dec. 13 at Logan's Roadhouse for its annual Christmas Party and to donate proceeds from its sponsors, car shows and cruise-ins. This year, the Sumter Cruisers were able to distribute $1,400 each to Relay for Life, United Ministries and John K. Crosswell Home for Children. The club also donated $1,000 toward South Carolina flood relief. From left: David Marcell, club president; Jerry Allred, executive director of John K. Crosswell Home for Children; Marnie Walls with Relay for Life; and Mark Champagne, executive director of Sumter United Ministries.
